CC Docket 96-262 (Access Charge Reform)
CC Docket 99-249 (Low-Volume Long Distance Users)

Dear Ms. Salas:

The attachment referenced in an ex parte BellSouth filed on January 14, 2000, was inadvertently missing from the filing. The ex parte letter was regarding a January 12, 2000, meeting in which members of the Coalition for Affordable Local and Long Distance Service ("CALLS"), met with various FCC staff to discuss possible modifications to the CALLS proposal for universal service and access reform. The January 14 ex parte and chart are attached to this as a correction to the previous filing. We regret any inconvenience this inadvertent omission may have caused.

As required by Section 1.1206(b)(2) of the Commission's rules, I am filing two copies of this notice for placement in the record for each of the proceedings identified above.

Sincerely,

Re: CC Docket 94-1 (Price Cap Performance Review)
CC Docket 96-45 (Universal Service)
CC Docket 96-262 (Access Charge Reform)
CC Docket 99-249 (Low-Volume Long Distance Users)

Dear Ms. Salas:

On January 12, 2000, members of the Coalition for Affordable Local and Long Distance Service ("CALLS"), met with various FCC staff to discuss possible modifications to the CALLS proposal for universal service and access reform. Topics discussed included the productivity factor, appropriate levels of local switching revenues, and subscriber line charges.

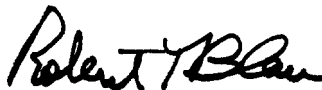

Members of the CALLS coalition reiterated their belief that the industry proposal would leave consumers better off than they would be under current FCC rules. Members of the CALLS coalition also explained why adoption of the industry proposal would result in more timely deployment of broadband services, particularly in rural areas. During the course of these discussions, the attached chart was referenced.

The CALLS coalition was represented by: Frank Gumper, Bell Atlantic; Alan Ciampornero and Dennis Weller, GTE; Jay Bennett and Gary Phillips, SBC; Melissa Newman, US West; and myself, representing BellSouth.

Members of the FCC staff attending the meeting included: Larry Strickling, Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau; Dorothy Attwood, Office of Chairman Kennard; and Yog Varma, Jane Jackson, Aaron Goldschmidt, and Rich Lerner, all of the Common Carrier Bureau.

As required by Section 1.1206(b)(2) of the Commission's rules, I am filing two copies of this notice for placement in the record for each of the proceedings identified above.

Sincerely,
